

EnerGeo360™ Strategic Member Solutions

Exclusively available to EnerGeo Alliance members, EnerGeo360™ is a results-driven advisory service offering customized turnkey solutions for clients' above-ground risks. Our outcomes-driven analyses and strategies, coupled with energy geoscience industry subject matter expertise and combined experience of over 100 years, strategically position us to deliver cutting-edge comprehensive solutions which are custom-tailored for each member to ensure successful outcomes are achieved. We are the go-to essential business partner of choice for global energy access challenges, enabling member companies to execute their projects and operations to explore or develop energy in any region around the world.

EnerGeo has an extensive portfolio of high-impact strategic solutions supporting members' entry and operations in pivotal energy basins across the globe. Countries where we have provided strategic support for members navigating regulatory and permitting processes, environmental impact reviews, public consultation, litigation, media inquiries, and more include but are not limited to:

Argentina

- Litigation support
- Exclusion zone consultation

Australia

- Media management
- Operations public consultation

Greece

- Stranding event consultation and support
- Media research

South Africa

- Regulatory and communications strategy development with three members
- Litigation support
- Defense of surveys plans engagement with regulator
- Public consultation support

- Scientific and communications coordination with members facing growing NGO opposition
- Operations messaging support
- Affidavit preparation support and expert legal declarations support

United Kingdom

- Nuclear waste information support and media plan development

United States

- GOM ITR consultation
- GOM LOA consultation
- U.S. data confidentiality consultation
- Congressional member information support and consultation

Uruguay

- Scientific support
- Expert legal declarations

EnerGeo has long focused on utilizing a consultative approach as a critical business partner for our Governing Members, leveraging our core competencies and expertise in the areas of government and regulatory engagement and policy, science, communications, and media engagement. This same expertise is now accessible through the EnerGeo360™ Strategic Member Solutions, available to companies in other EnerGeo Alliance membership tiers, no matter where you are operating in the world.

EnerGeo360™ provides members solutions that promote regulatory and energy access, credible science, consistent communications and public relations, and valuable research and data in furtherance of EnerGeo's mission.

With EnerGeo360™, the EnerGeo Alliance harnesses our unparalleled think tank full of strategic acuity and knowledge of your unique business challenges to deliver results at reasonable costs for members. Contact us to learn how our experts can solve your complex industry challenges on time and on budget.

Strategic Solutions Start Here™

EnerGeo360™ is exclusive to EnerGeo members.

Value Starts with Membership!

Please contact Jameson White:

jwhite@energeoalliance.org or visit www.energeoalliance.org